MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

Advising her approval April 10, 2015, of Enrolled SBs 7, 23, 38, 126, 152, 195, 250, 405, 420, 487, 574, 575, 638, 763 and 831 and veto of SB 479.

The veto message reads as follows:

TO THE HONORABLE PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE
AND MEMBERS OF THE OKLAHOMA SENATE
FIRST SESSION OF THE
FIFTY FIFTH OKLAHOMA LEGISLATURE

ENROLLED SENATE BILL NO. 479:

This is to advise you that on this date, pursuant to the authority vested in me by Section 11 of Article VI of the Oklahoma Constitution to approve or object to legislation presented to me, I have VETOED Senate Bill 479.

Senate Bill 479 (Bill) establishes a process through which the Legislature may formally request—in the form of a legislative resolution—information from executive agencies regarding the “legal authority for a specific facet of operations of the agency.” The agency head must respond to the resolution within ten (10) days of receipt, or could face removal from his or her position.

This Bill is unnecessary, and lacks the spirit of collaboration that must exist if government is to act efficiently and effectively. It seeks to replace more informal, but highly effective, oversight, with an unnecessarily complicated administrative process.

First, this Bill is unnecessary because it merely restates what is already a clear and inviolable tenet of constitutional law: namely, agencies have only those powers that have been delegated to them by the Oklahoma Constitution and Statutes. Accordingly, each and every official act of an agency must already be encompassed within and supported by the legal authority granted it by the Legislature or the Constitution.

Second, the Bill imposes a formal and bureaucratic process to address perceived agency overreach, where a simple, efficient, and time-tested solution already exists. Certainly, agency heads are expected to respond thoroughly and rapidly to all legislative inquiries, regardless of whether those inquiries are verbal, written, or stated in a resolution; to do otherwise would be to invite disciplinary action from either the executive branch or the Legislature, which body has (as is described above) significant control over agencies via rulemaking and legislation.

We do not need another redundant law that creates more bureaucracy. Oklahoma expects and deserves a government that works together cooperatively and without unnecessary red tape to advance the quality of life and interests of its people.

By the Governor of the State of Oklahoma
/s/ Mary Fallin

Advising her approval April 13, 2015, of Enrolled SBs 42, 132, 137, 153, 249, 293 and 637.

Pursuant to the Schulz motion, the Senate adjourned at 3:20 p.m. to meet Tuesday, April 14, 2015, at 9:00 a.m.
